4 This recommendation is unnecessary. The emoluments of Mr.T.V.Thiruvengadam have been fixed at Rs. 250 and he has been given the rank and pay of an Assistant Commissioner. His appointment as Personal Assistant to Dewan counts against the place of Chief Superintendent available for the Dewan's Office and he gets an allowance of Rs. 50 during the time he does duty as Personal Assistant.

5 With reference to the foregoing order I beg leave to submit as follows:—

6 The appointment of Chief Supt. Dewans Office is a tenure appointment under G.O. No. G 195-93/Cash 1-18-15 dated 7th March 1919 to be filled up by special selection from among the Superintendents. It is usual to sanction increments as they accrue to the Superintendent selected for the post in his substantive appointment. The increment roll of Mr. Tiruvengadam Mudaliar was therefore submitted for sanction.

7 From the fact that the maximum pay of a Chief Superintendent was given to Mr. T. Mudaliar with the rank and status of an Asst. Com^r and a local allowance of Rs 50/- which has since been converted into Personal allowance, and the Dewan's order dated 30th March 1920, it is presumed that it is not intended to reduce the emoluments of Mr. Tiruvengadam Mudaliar in case he ceases to hold the appointment of Personal Assistant to the Dewan ~~and that the~~ pay and allowance granted to him are personal.

2. In that case orders are solicited as to whether his name may be continued to be shown in the list of Suffds with a remark "On other duty as Per: Astt to the Dewan with the rank and status of an Astt Comr from 14th July 1919 from which date his pay was raised to Rs 250 + 50 local allce as a special case. The local allce has since been converted into Personal allce" noted against his name or or whether any other action is necessary in regard to the appointment on which he has a lien.

Chief Sec. 31.7.22

9. Mr Jotiveyadanis permanent place was that of a Supdt in the Sects.

When he was taken on the Dewan's staff he was appointed Perumal's asstt to the Dewan on a pay of 250 Rs + 50 (L.A timemade P.A) with the rank & status of an asstt Commr. His appointment was ordered to count against that of the Chief Supdt Dewan's Office. This latter Office is a temne appointment & a question arises as to what his exact position will be when for any reason he ceases to be on the Dewan's staff.

If it seems to me that the general spirit of the orders passed is that he should Draw 250+50 Rs in any case & that so long as he is on the Dewan's staff the place of chief Supdt should not be otherwise filled up.

N.B.—Should routine notes be written on small slips, the notes must be copied, or slips pasted on this form.

Therefore if he quits the Devasthanam staff & it becomes necessary to fill up the Chief Supdt's place there, some other corresponding appointment should be kept vacant & count against his appointment.

3 There is an idea of doing away with the post of Chief Supdt & if this comes into effect one place of Supdt may be created against the Tiruvengadam appointment & he will retain his present pay & status, as personal to him.

The post of Chief Superintendent of the Dewan's Office is a tenure appointment open to be filled up by any of the Superintendents of the General and Revenue Secretariat who may be selected for the office for the time being and it is usual therefore for the increments earned by the official in his substantive appointment to be sanctioned while he holds such tenure appointment. My Personal Assistant, Mr. T.V.Tiruvengadam Mudaliar, whose appointment counts against that of the Chief Superintendent of the Dewan's Office, was a Superintendent in the Secretariat before his present appointment. On an increment roll submitted by the Registrar recommending the usual increment on the pay drawn by Mr. T.V.Tiruvengadam Mudaliar as Superintendent, I noted as follows:-

Y

2. His Highness has since been pleased to direct the conversion of the local allowance drawn by this officer into a personal one. It is obvious that the pay and allowances graciously sanctioned to Mr.Tiruvengadam are entirely personal to him and have no connection with that attached to the tenure appointment against which his present appointment now counts. I submit therefore that in order to obviate any misunderstanding it may be definitely ordered that if for any reason this officer ceases to hold an appointment on the Dewan's Staff, he will retain the status and emoluments now sanctioned to him and that his appointment will count against one of the chief ministerial officers in the Secretariat.
